RE: INCOME ASSISTANCE EMERGENCY POLICY

At a DULY CONVENED Ts'kw'aylaxw Chief and Council Meeting held on December 2nd, 2013, a motion was passed, Motion 2013120201 as follows:

As per the Aboriginal Affairs and Northern Development Canada Income Assistance Policy Section 1.3:

The SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM provides financial benefits and services to individuals and families whom are residents on reserve and who are in need.

THEREFORE:

There will be ABSOLUTELY NO emergency monies allotted from the Income Assistance Program, under ANY circumstances.

BECAUSE:

Any monies spent outside of the Social Development Department policies are NOT reimbursable, and will be taken off of the following year's budget.

AND SO:

The Ts'kw'aylaxw First Nation (TFN) Social Development Program receives monies from the Aboriginal Affairs and Northern Development Canada (AANDC) to carry out the Social Development Department Program. We have an agreement in place with AANDC, and with this agreement, TFN is required to follow the Social Development Program Policies and Procedures of AANDC. We would like to inform you that there are NO EMERGENCY FUNDS available.
